

Workforce Information Council, www.workforceinfocouncil.org

C2ER LMI Training Institute Annual LMI Forum, State Economic Researchers' Roundtable

Wednesday, June 8, 2011, 8:30 am – 12:00 noon, Gary Crossley, wicedtoyou@yahoo.com

Integration of Economic Development/Workforce Boards –

- Tools for Job Creation & Business Recruitment
- Real Time Data Systems
- New Employment Projections System

Labor Market Information Resources

Brookings Institution/Andrew Reamer (Now at George Washington University), Putting America to Work: The Essential Role of Federal Labor Market Statistics, http://www.brookings.edu/~media/Files/rc/papers/2010/1029_labor_reamer/1029_labor_reamer_brief.pdf

C2ER's LMI Training Institute, www.lmiontheweb.org

Department of Commerce

Bureau of Economic Analysis, www.bea.gov

American Community Survey, <http://www.census.gov/acs/www/>

Local Employment Dynamics, <http://lehd.did.census.gov/led/>

Department of Labor

Bureau of Labor Statistics, www.bls.gov

Employment & Training Administration, www.doleta.gov & www.workforce3one.org

State LMI Improvement (SLMII) Grantee Symposium presentations and panel discussions are available on YouTube at: <https://winwin.workforce3one.org/view/4101115146126722546/info>

Jobs for the Future, www.jff.org

National Association of State Workforce Agencies, www.naswa.org

Occupational Network (O*Net), www.onetcenter.org

Occupational Supply and Demand System, www.occsupplydemand.org

Private Sector Resources (Burning Glass, Chmura Economics & Analytics, EMSI, Geographic Solutions, Google, Haver Analytics, The Conference Board Help Wanted OnLine, etc.)

Projections Managing Partnership, dev.projectionscentral.com & www.projectionscentral.com

Rutgers John J. Heldrich Center for Workforce Development, Unlocking the Treasure Chest of LMI: Crucial Information for Job Seekers, Educators, and Employers in a Tough Economy, http://www.heldrich.rutgers.edu/sites/default/files/content/LMI_Brief_Final.pdf

Workforce Information Council, www.workforceinfocouncil.org